TRAINEESHIPS

Traineeships

Traineeships are an excellent way to combine training with work, enabling you to have a job while you complete training towards a nationally recognised qualification. They are available to anyone of working age.

You can do a traineeship if you are a school-leaver, re-entering the workforce or as an adult or mature-aged person wishing to change careers. You can even begin your traineeship while you're still at school.

Employer Benefits

You can transform your business by employing a trainee – because skilled staff are the drivers of performance.

- Ability to mentor and develop loyal and motivated workers.
- It is also an investment in your business, your community and your industry to ensure you are ready to take advantage of whatever the future market place has to offer.
- The Government encourages employers by helping make it an affordable option to invest in skills for the future of your industry and business through employment of a trainees and for upskilling existing staff.
- Your community also benefits. Employing locals keeps money circulating in the community and underpins a vibrant, healthy regional economy.
- Australian Government initiatives currently being offered to help you keep your business, and your community, prosperous may include financial incentives.
